TO: Scholarship Applicants

FROM: Dr. Richard Abernathy, Executive Director

DATE: January 31, 2012

RE: C. B. Garrison Scholarship

Mass Group Marketing (American Public Life) of Plano and the Arkansas Association of Educational Administrators will award the eighteenth $1,000 scholarship to a son or daughter of an AAEA member. John Beesley, Chief Executive Officer of Mass Group Marketing, established the scholarship in honor of Dr. C. B. Garrison, former Superintendent of the Fort Smith Public Schools.

The selection will be based on academic excellence, leadership in school activities, work experiences and community service. Each applicant must print the application from our web site (www.theaaea.org).

Upon completion the application form must be signed by the high school principal or an appropriate school official and returned no later than April 27, 2012, to the AAEA c/o Garrison Scholarship, 219 S Victory, Little Rock, AR 72201. A panel of AAEA members will judge the applicants and select the winner. Mass Group Marketing will send a $1,000 check to the college or university the winner will attend.
